Thieves are again at work on the North side. Last night the hardware store of Pratt Bros. at 901-903 Kansas avenue was entered and a revolver, some cartridges, razors and between two and three dollars in money taken. Entrance was effected from the rear of the store and the robber seemed to have experienced some difficulty in getting into the yard at the back of the building. This yard is enclosed in a high wire fence and after breaking a high wire lence and after breaking down the staple at the rear gate the man went to work at one of the cellar windows, taking out the frame and entering through the cellar and up to the storeroom by means of the elevator shaft. Indications show that there was only one man and that he was a good sized one. Footprints found on the soft earth in the rear yard fit a good sized one. Footprints found on the soft earth in the rear yard fit a No. 11 shoe. The Wentworth black-smith shop was visited before Pratt's store and some of the chisels used there were found by Mr. Pratt this morning. Topeka is said to be infest-ed by a gang of colored toughs who were pardoned from the penitentiary last winter and some of the officers are inclined to think that they are the sullty ones.

County Attorney Will Take Hand in Permit Question.

Repudiates Action of His Deputy in Kuntz Case.

A dramatic episode occurred today In the probate court in which a new antagonist of the demon rum was introduced into the local arena.

introduced into the local arena.

Mrs. Ida Dan, member of the Christian church, resident of Seabrook, and a conscientious and earnest follower of Carrie Nation, was the principal figure in the drama enacted before the probate judge.

The occasion was the hearing of the application of W. B. Davis, for a permit to sell intoxicating liquors at No. $34 Kansas avenue.

Mrs. Dan, armed with a Bible, a half dozen tracts on the evil of the use of tobacco, and a copy of a reuse of tobacco, and a copy of a re-cent newspaper folded to expose prominently to view an article conisfy you send it back to me and I will refund your money.

This is the fairest proposition ever made by a rupture specialist. The banks of any responsible clizen in Marshall will tell you that is the way I do business—always absolutely on the square.

If you have tried most everything else, come to me. Where others fall is where I have my greatest success. Write me today and I will send you my book on Rupture and its Cure, showing my appliance and giving you prices and names of people who have been tried and been cured. It is instant relief when all others fall Remember I use no salve, no harness, no lies. Just a straight business deal at a reasonable price.

Davis sat through the speech with an immovable face and refused to be drawn into an argument.

"Don't you know that it is wicked to sell the stuff that makes men take the lives of others?" said Mrs. Dan, addressing her remarks to Dayis. addressing her remarks to Davis. 'Don't you know that there are wives, sisters, sweethearts, mothers who love the men that are permitted to ruin their lives by buying liquors in just such places as you propose to con-duct? Attorney Magaw then asked that the hearing be held this week on account to the fact that the present permit expires tomorrow, and that the stock of liquors would be subject to seizure if the new permit was not in force as con as the other expired.

"I will have to argue a case in district court tomorrow," replied Mr. Schenck. "and the gambiers' case comes up in the city court Friday, and Saturday is motion day again in district court, so I hardly see how we can reach this before Monday. For the benefit of Mr. Davis, however, I will pledge that the county attorney's office will not take advantage of Mr. Davis in this matter till after the hearing Monday."

When the case was disposed of Mr. Schenck announced that he also intended to oppose the issuance of a license to sell liquor as applied for by the Postoffice drug store, and that he intended to begin action to cause the license of W. F. Kuntz of North Topeka to be revoked.

"I had no official notice of the fact that there was an application from

"Well, no one in my office has been delegated authority to approve any permit, and hereafter I desire to be informed of all applications, and I will informed of all applications, and I will look after them personally," declared the county attorney.

This ended the matter, and as the participants were leaving the office Mrs. Dan endeavored to induce everyone to read the article about the drunken son murdering his aged mother. Most everyone had read it.

Mrs. Dan then tried to corner the county attorney to point out to him his duty in the matter of preventing the issuance of the liquor permit. He cleaded business and made his escape.
